Editorial Comment.

Most people thought the difficulty about the occupation of Lourenzo Marques and the Delagoa Bay district by Great Britain had been settled long ago. This, however, seeins to be a mistako. A recout telegram put the matter pretty plainly, and one cannot help feeling that Portugal must have been indiced by some Western Power to assume her present somewhat ungrateful attitude on this matter. The position of Portugal at the present crisis is not particularly creditable. As Vancouver paper puts it, the connivance of the Portuguese officials in passing supplies of ammunition, etc., to the Boers, 'involves a gross violation by Portugal of the laws of neutrality as laid down by the laws of nations, and at the same time guilty of the grossest ingratitude shows that decadent minor Power to be towards our Empire, which has more than once saved Portugal from extinction as an independent Power, first at the hands of Napoleon, and in later days, as a result of threatened absorption by Spain.' It has been suggested that Lourenzo Marques be seized by Great Britain and retained until the end of the wat ; but it is quite within the bounds of probability that such action might lead to international complications a result which might be of serious inconvenience at the present time. The London Times, while discussing the International law aspects of Boer importations through Delagoa Bay, snys: Were we to adopt, either with on without the consent of Portugal, the drastic The s.s. It would seem, therefore, that the only line of action The N: P. Co.'s s.s. I nergia has arrived at open to Great Britain is to carefully watch the piano-case and other branches of the The N. P. Co.'s s. s. Tucoma has arrived import trade at Delagos Bay. Great discusaion has been raised in the British press over the setzure of yessels by our ermsers in that part of the world or on the way to the Boers. Much stress has been laid on the vastly different tone adopted by the United States Government as to such seizures when compared with that of Germany. However, each case must be adjudged in accordance with facts and the law of nations, and we believe the result will be fearlessly arrived at and carried out. It were well if neutral nations were to bear in mind that breaches of laws governing neutrals may at any time react upon themselves, with the most disagreeable consequences. One of the ever-recurring subjects of dispute as to contraband is food subject to seizure? Lord Rosebery appeared to be very anxious on the sub- Th ject, but the Times cannot be said to have given the authoritative statement which my he looked for. There might be occasions when some foodstuffs would be regarded as contraband, while others would not; and so forth. But the Thunderer suggests that perhaps it would be best not to create a precedent regarding a question Hawaii upon which so much divergence of opinion exists, by which it may be inferred the feeling at Home is or was against the decision that foodstuffs be declared contraband. A telegram intimating the seizure of a flourladen vessel would lead us to believe that circumstances may after cases; but then there may have been other, things than flour ou board this ship. It is questionable whether the tumoured threat, that the Boers would reduce the rations of our prisoners in Bretori, would have any influence upon the decision to be arrived at. Worse rumours than and the Club equalized towards the end of that referred to have been credited the latter period of the game. concerning the a tion of the Boers. Yesterday afternoon Messrs Hughes and Hough offered for sale by auction the lesschold property situated at the Peak, registered in the Land Office as rural building lot No. 20, and known as 'Dunnottar.' The area of the property is 36,650 square feet. The lot is held for the residue of a term of 75 years, commencing from the 1st. August, 1882. The annual Crown rent is $20. The lot is occupied by a five-roomed house, with bath rooms, drying room, outhouses, tennis court, and garden. Mr N. Mumford was the purchaser for $16,000.

A telegram, perporting to emanate from Berlin, says :- Despite repeated British denials, it seems to be a fact that British agents are busy in many of the rural districts in Germany hiring veterans for service in South Africa. The District Court of Hamborg has just issued an Order for the arrest of a British agent named York for hiring a number of German peasants in the neighborhood for military service, which, under the imperial laws, is a criminal offence. One of the prisoners is the necountant of the Kwan Mo Lung, who were the landlords of the godown, and the other defendant was the accountant at the godown. On behalf of the first defendant, Mr Ewens contended that Section 2 o Ord. 1 of 1848, under which the charge was brought, only applied to persons who placed goods on storage. If it did apply to the person who received a storage it could only be the owners of the premises (assuming the owners to be the actual godown people) who could be held liable. He also submitted that a man could not be convicted unless it could be shown that he had actual knowledge of such dangerous goods being in the godown, and he pointed out that the was achigor suights they we have conveyed into the godown disguised as something else.
